

Small ideas can make a big difference!

A creative ideas competition for children and young people

Everyone Everyday

101 ways to include people with disability

Everyone Everyday

101 ways to include people with disability

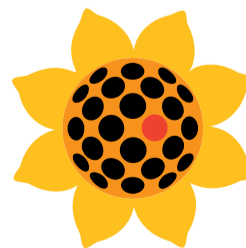

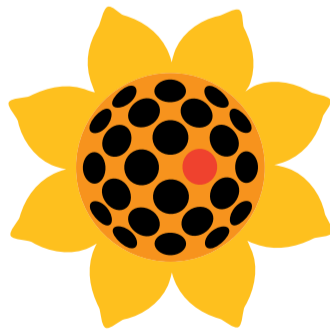

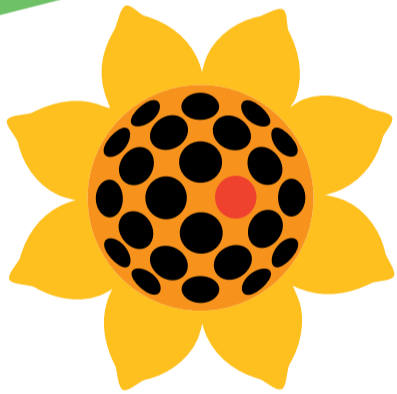

Tell us your ideas about the things that everyone can do to include people with disability in everyday life.

Great prizes for students and teachers. Winning entries will be published in a book.

Competition closes Sunday 1 April 2012.

Kids, ask your teacher about how you can be involved.

Teachers, consider running the competition as a language, SOSE or creative arts activity in your classroom in Term 1, 2012.
